Why did David want to make a palace for the Lord to dwell in?

Why did God not want David to build a palace for him?

Who is God talking about in verses 12 - 15, who will make the house for the Lord? (Hint: He is the son of David and wrote a lot of the Proverbs).

In verses 13 and 16 God says that the kingdom/throne will last forever, who will make sure this will happen?

What was David's reaction to the Lord directly telling him what to do/not do to?
