

28th June - 2 Kings 24:18-25:21

This week's readings were:

2 Kings 2, 4, 6 (17:14-24) (24:18 - 25:21)

This brings us to the end of the era of the Kings. All the people now get taken away from their homeland to another country called Babylon.

Activity today is to use a ribbon or a length of elastic.

Task 1: Tie your left leg to someone else's left leg and try to walk around the back yard. (Using chains/ropes, this is the way a long line of captives had to walk all the way to another country!)

Task 2: (Undo your legs) then tie your right arm to someone else's left arm and make your way through a homemade obstacle course (Use cushions/ tables to create tunnels/climbing/skinny passageway etc.
