

1. The city of Philippi to whom the Apostle Paul wrote his epistle is located

- (a) in the South China Sea.
- (b) in north Africa.
- (c) in ancient territory of Macedonia.
- (d) in southern Israel

2. When Paul wrote to the Philippians, he was

- (a) taking some much needed rest and relaxation on one of the Greek island resorts.
- (b) attending the annual Apostles' Convention in Jerusalem.
- (c) preaching in Egypt.
- (d) imprisoned in Rome under the supervision of Caesar's Praetorium guard.

3. Paul wrote to the Philippian church because

- (a) he wanted to thank them for their generous support and encourage them to rejoice.
- (b) too many of them were arriving late for church on a Sunday.
- (c) to remind them to pay their denominational dues which were now two months late.
- (d) they had begun using pizzas instead of unleavened bread for the Communion.

4. Paul told the Philippians that God had begun a good work in them and that He

- (a) had forgotten about it.
- (b) had been a little busy lately with several unforeseen wars occurring.
- (c) was trying to figure out whether they were worthy for Him to complete it.
- (d) would bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ.

5. Just prior to going to Philippi, Paul had had a vision of a

- (a) Macedonian man beckoning him to bring the gospel to them.
- (b) Maltese man asking him where his falcon had flown away to.
- (c) Moroccan piano by the name Sam wondering why he should play his song again.

- (d) Mexican man selling burritos.

6. Paul and Timothy address the Philippian Christians in the opening verse as

- (a) babes in Christ.
- (b) saints.
- (c) the True Israel of God.
- (d) the super-predestined.

7. When Paul had heard that there were some preaching in and near Philippi who did not do so with pure motives, he

- (a) wrote to them sternly commanding them to stop immediately.
- (b) sued them for breach of copyright.
- (c) rejoiced that at least Christ was being proclaimed.
- (d) asked them for their sermon notes.

8. It was Paul's hope that he could honour Christ

- (a) by bring released from his imprisonment quickly
- (b) after the Lord sent an angel to burst open the Royal prison doors just as He had done in Philippi.
- (c) taking up a large offering to prove that the Lord was indeed prospering him.
- (d) in his body no matter whether he lived or died.

9. Paul did not want the Philippians to be afraid of

- (a) spiders.
- (b) snakes.
- (c) opponents.
- (d) hard work.

10. Paul announced to the Philippians that the Lord had granted them the

- (a) privilege of suffering for Him.
- (b) key of David to unlock previously locked doors.
- (c) joy of angels.
- (d) wisdom of Solomon to gain great wealth.